Amanda is an Educational Consultant representing the state of Florida. Amanda brings 15 years of experience in elementary education working in Title I schools with heavy ESE and ESOL student populations. Amanda spent the first 10 years of her career as a classroom teacher in grades 1, 3 and 5. During that time, Amanda mentored new teachers, supervised intern students and was the grade-level chairperson. Next, Amanda took on a role as a Learning Resource Specialist where her primary duties included being an MTSS Coach and Testing Coordinator. During her time in this role, she also assisted with Title I documentation and was the Lead Teacher for the mentor program. After relocating, Amanda became a Literacy/Instructional Coach for Brevard Public Schools where she worked with state, district and school personnel to mentor and coach teachers and provide professional development in support of the school improvement plan.

Amanda holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education from the University of Central Florida. She has also completed coursework to be ESOL and Reading Endorsed by the state of Florida.
