

Erin Cockrell

Irving, TX

1-814-737-9950

ecockrell@larsontexts.com

Erin Cockrell is a National Education Consultant for Big Ideas Learning. She consults with schools and districts in Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, New Jersey, Delaware & the D.C. area to support their mathematics achievement goals. She also presents and services the Big Ideas Math programs to current and potential adopters of the program.

Erin's professional repertoire delivers a wide range of blended experience. In 2001, Erin worked in the Reserves Evaluation department for El Paso Production (now Kinder Morgan) in Houston, TX. After two years, Erin switched gears to education and served the Greater Houston area as a College Admissions Consultant by helping K-12 students succeed academically and gain admission to their college of choice. Over a span of 13 years, Erin consulted students from more than 7 school districts, 20 private schools, and 14 colleges and worked with more than 100 students a week. In 2016, Erin joined USMLE-UWorld in Irving, TX as an SAT Prep Curriculum Author. Erin also worked as a Professional Development Manager at Scientific Learning prior to joining Big Ideas.

Associations and Awards

Member,
National Council of Teachers of Mathematics

Member,
Delaware Council of Teachers of Mathematics

Member,
New Jersey Council of Teachers of Mathematics

Member,
Maryland Council of Teachers of Mathematics

Member,
West Virginia Council of Teachers of Mathematics

Member,
Virginia Council of Teachers of Mathematics

Career Highlights

- Developed College Admissions and Academic Tutoring Business from the Ground Up
- Worked with up to 100+ Students a Week
- Consulted students from more than 7 school districts, 20 private schools, and 14 colleges
- Author for an SAT Prep Curriculum
- Managed Team of 7 Part-Time Educators