

India White

Gainesville, FL
814-806-6118

iwhite@larsontexts.com

India is a motivational speaker, life coach, author, educational consultant, entrepreneur, doctoral student and licensed minister. Audiences learn from her hardships and triumphs in life, both personally and professionally. She was named Teacher of the Year in two counties in Florida while, at the same time, publishing 25 books, serving as an Assistant Principal, and operating as a business owner in Florida. As a McKnight doctoral fellow, she aspires to impact education as a transformational leader.

Associations and Awards

Member

National Council of Teachers of Mathematics

Member

Florida Council of Teachers of Mathematics

India is a Gates Millennium Scholar and has used her platform to “pay it forward” as an educational example while helping to raise millions of dollars in scholarships for at-risk students.

She inspires people who want to be known as impactful and dynamic leaders who overcome struggles and hardships. As a math coach and a math teacher for the past 12 years, India has helped many struggling learners make educational gains, pass standardized tests with proficiency, and become college and career ready.

India’s books include “How to Overcome Obstacles from Your Past,” “Success in a Book,” “I Survived It,” and “Employee to Entrepreneur.” She is excited about the release of her new autobiography titled, “Double for My Trouble!”

Career Highlights

- Teacher of the Year in two Florida counties
- McKnight doctoral fellow
- Gates Millennium Scholar
- Raised millions of dollars in scholarships for at-risk students